EVANG. G. E. McTYRE B.A., B.H.G.

For the WORD OF GOD, is quick and powerful, and sharper than any twoedged sword; piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart. Heb. 4:12

As I am sitting here in my office, I'm thinking about the situation that we find ourselves in today.

Of course, I'm talking about the worldwide panic over this Coronavirus, and especially here in the United States.

What I am seeing is cause for alarm and that among other things, people are dying. But, it is not so much that as bad as that is, but it is the fact that people seem to have lost their minds over this situation, even though it is not nearly as bad as it is reported to be.

Things have gotten so bad, that people are being told not to go out of the house, to stay in the house, not to go to work, not to come within 6 feet of another person, to avoid crowds of more than 50 people, businesses are shutting down, sporting events are being shut down, people are being laid off from work, and worst of all hospitals are being almost overrun with people that think they have contracted this virus.

What I am seeing here, is what happens when fear overtakes faith, and common sense.

When I talk about faith, I am talking about the type of faith that #1, we are supposed to have in God, and #2 the type of faith we are supposed to have in our medical professionals.

In God, because He is in control of everything. And as such, those of us that are Christians, really have nothing to fear, because He is our shield and our buckler in the times of trouble. Yet, as I look around, I am a little dismayed at all of the preachers that I see and hear on TV and the radio acting as if God is not in control.

To listen to some of these preachers, you would think that the world was about to come to an end, and they don't know what to do. Instead of getting their marching orders from God, they are getting them from doctors and politicians, more specifically Democrats.

Now let me be clear about this. I have no problems with the medical professionals, and the recommendations that they put forth. They are doing the best they can under the circumstances, by giving advice based on what they know.

However, it is what they don't know, or in some cases don't acknowledge, that is leading to this chaos!! They don't know, or acknowledge God.

This is where the preachers come in.

It is their job among other things, to deliver God's message to the people, that He is in control, and to give directions to them on what to do to survive. Instead, they are looking to the Democratic party, and their recommendations on whose fault it is, and what we need to do.

And it all boils down to getting rid of this president. That means these preachers are playing politics, ignoring God, and putting the lives of millions of people at risk.

We must remember this. When there is fear and chaos, people abandon common sense and make irrational decisions, which is just what the Democratic party wants, so that they can defeat him in November.

I find it interesting and ironic that this virus conveniently pops up in an election year, and the panic it has caused, has wiped out all the good that this president has done in the previous three years, concerning the economy, jobs, and getting people off of being dependent on government programs to survive.

It is almost as if this was a planned event, designed for that specific purpose.

We have China and the Democratic party, two entities that dislike Trump, because he has dared to confront them, and so far defeat them in their goal to make this nation a socialist empire.

If you think I'm overreaching in this area, just look at who the Democratic party was running against president Trump. Among the 3 leaders, two of them, are avowed socialists. You can tell that by the ideas that they ran on.

I will be addressing that next month.

The word of God, is meant to bring peace, in the midst of a storm, among other things. The word of the Democratic party is meant to bring fear and chaos.

You choose which one you want to follow.

As for me and my house, we choose to serve the Lord.

From the common sense aspect, in 2009-10, under Barack Obama, in this nation, over 12,200 people died from the swine flu, according to Fact-Check, and, there was nowhere near the type of panic and hysteria that we see today, because of a little over 250 deaths.

In fact, all of the deaths worldwide, haven't gotten to that number yet.

The only difference I can see for this reaction is what party was in control of the White House.

And, let's not forget that, according to doctors, over 95 percent of those who get it, survive, without any extraordinary means as hospitalization, or life-saving equipment.

So, that means we are being led by fear and misinformation, to help the Democratic party, and its partners in the news media and Hollywood[Hellywood], to get control again.

THINK ABOUT IT!!!
