Re: COVID-19 pandemic,

I am a former Air Policeman with training in investigations. And, as a result I used that knowledge to follow a hunch.

While researching some facts about the coronavirus, I discovered something that indicates that the United States was targeted by China, with the possible assistance of the leadership of the Democratic party, for the sole purpose of helping the Democratic party win the election in November.

The reason I say this is the number of cases of this virus in the United States as compared with the rest of the world, and the next country on the list.

According to WWW.VIRUSNCOV.COM the United States has the most cases, followed by Spain. This is a site that has live updates. If you go on it now, the numbers will have changed because of new cases being added.

As of the time that I'm writing this letter, the United States has a total of 1,200,794 cases [recovered, active and deaths]. The second country on the list is Spain, with 248,301 total.

If you divide the number of cases of the United States by the number of cases in Spain, you will see that the United States has almost five times as many cases as Spain does.

The total cases worldwide is 3,619,523. This number represents the cases in 212 countries and territories.

Now here's the thing, if you divide the total number of cases worldwide by the number of cases and the United States, you get 3.01. What this is saying is that the United States has almost 1/3rd of those cases.

What this is telling me, is that this pandemic is not random, but rather a deception to cover up the fact that the United States was targeted.

Why would China target the United States?

It's very simple. Since Donald Trump has been in office, he has stopped China from taking advantage of the United States through bad trade agreements, and putting tariffs on the goods that they provide us. This has caused a lot of companies to move back to the US, which in turn provides more jobs for Americans. That means that China is losing its control over us.

So China has a reason to want Donald Trump out of office. And who else wants Donald Trump, out of office? The Democratic party.

It is a little too coincidental that this virus pops up during an election year and destroys just about everything that Donald trump has done to improve this nation.

That is why I say this was a targeted attack using biological warfare.

Another thing to look at, is the potency of this virus. That is because, even though it is coronavirus, which we do have immunization medicine for, this virus has been, using a military and scientific term, WEAPONIZED, for the sole purpose of making it far more deadly than it otherwise would be.

Under normal circumstances, I don't see any viruses spreading the way this one is. Viruses don't pick which country to strike the hardest.
