

Well, Joe Biden and the democrats are at it again!

In his latest campaign ad, Joe Biden, accuses president Trump and the GOP both fear mongering.

If anybody was doing any real fact-checking, they would be telling everybody that the Democratic party are the ones that are doing the fear mongering.

Go back to any election year that you want to, and listen to what the democrats are saying. Every single time, they open their mouths, they are saying things that will put fear into anybody.

If you are a senior citizen, they are telling you that the GOP wants to cut programs like Social Security, Medicare, and other programs that benefit senior citizens.

If you are an African American, you are being told that they, the GOP, are racists and that they want to turn the clock back 55 years on civil rights, and other things that they know will endear them to their party.

What do these 2 groups have in common???

The high probability that most of them are incapable of, or too computer illiterate to, check up on what Biden and the Democratic party are falsely promoting, or are too lazy to do so.

These groups make up the biggest supporters of the Democratic party, and they are doing it out of fear.

So, the Democrats target them, fill them with fear, and the result is, they abandon common sense, and go out and do something that they would not ordinarily do.

ALWAYS KEEP THIS IN MIND!!! If the Democrats are accusing the GOP of doing something wrong, THEY ARE THE ONES THAT ARE ACTUALLY GUILTY OF DOING IT!!!

Democrats are always talking about we need to listen to the experts, and that Trump doesn't do that!!

In my mind, an EXPERT, is someone that knows all there is to know about whatever field they are supposed to be an EXPERT in.

Well, if that is the case, then that means nothing can come up tomorrow, next week, months or years from now that could refute what they say.

If we go back in history, we will find that the advancements we have today, completely destroyed the opinions of the EXPERTS back then. Yet, we are to believe that today, nothing can happen in the future that would prove that these EXPERTS we have today, may not be as knowledgeable as we think they are.

Another point is, if you call two different people EXPERTS in the same field, and yet, they disagree on conclusions, then, someone is not as much of an EXPERT as they are made out to be.

Not only that, one, or both of them might be getting paid off to state something that is not true.

The only EXPERT at anything is Jesus Christ, because among other things, He knows what will happen in the future, because He already has it planned out!! And the Democrats have made it clear, they don't want to hear anything He has to say!!!

One of the major problems that we have in the black community is, too many of us rely on information and directions from people who themselves don't have a clue as to what they are doing.

The result is what you see happening in the black community today.

Despite all the progress that this nation has made over the decades, the black community remains basically at the bottom of the barrel in just about every category that you can name.

The reason for this is quite simple. It is the case of the blind leading the blind! [MATT.15:14].

When you have people that are too lazy or incapable of researching facts for themselves, and trust what they are being told by family, friends, neighbors, or community leaders, who themselves may be in that exact same position, you have the makings of a disaster.

My discussions with several friends online bears this out.

Time and time again, they take positions that have already been proven to be a lie, as if they were the truth. They refuse to believe that what they have been told by these people could possibly be inaccurate or a straight out lie.

Without knowing it, they are committing idolatry.

There is nothing wrong with trusting what people tell you, as long as the facts bear this out. And, the only way to do that is by research.

Now, in some instances, the consequences of following inaccurate information, is no big deal. However, when it comes down to major issues that could affect one's health and well being, and dare I say your eternal soul, then there is a big problem.

For the most part, a education is the key.

However, for over five decades, the black community in this nation has been woefully under-served by the public school system which is headed by liberals.

What they have done, is to make sure that the black community in this nation is incapable of researching anything that they are told by making sure that they can't read.

Well, if you can't read, you have no choice but to have someone read it for you. And, depending on the person, they may not give you the factual information, if it conflicts with what they themselves believe to be the truth.

The next problem is, if you can read, but can't understand what you are reading, then, once again, you have to rely on someone else to interpret it for you, and they may have the same bias against the truth.

That then, makes you dependent on them, or as it could be called, 'THEIR SLAVE!!!'

Naturally, if you are too lazy to do the research, you are in the same boat as the above.

Think about this when you go to vote this November!!!

LET ME REITERRATE!!!

THIS ELECTION HAS ABSOLUTELY NOTHING TO DO WITH DONALD J. TRUMP!!!

IT HAS TO DO WITH :

RIGHTEOUSNESS VS UNRIGHTEOUSNESS!!

GOOD VS EVIL!!!

GODLINESS VS UNGODLINESS!!!

THAT'S IT!!!

AND, IF YOU CAN'T TELL THE DIFFERENCE, YOU NEED JESUS!!!

NO IF'S, AND'S OR BUT'S ABOUT IT!!!

PASS IT ON!!
