SCRIPTURE – ISA. 1:15-16

MAY, 2025

And when ye spread forth your hands, I will hide mine eyes from you: yea, when ye make many prayers, I will not hear: YOUR HANDS ARE FULL OF BLOOD.

Wash you, make you clean; put away the evil of your doings from before mine eyes; CEASE TO DO EVIL;

SUBJECT – AMERICA IS IN TROUBLE, AND, BLACK PREACHERS ARE TO BLAME!!! [1]

The message for this month, is one that everyone needs to hear and consider. Because your response to it, could very well be the deciding factor as to whether you will be removed from this earth during the 'rapture of the Church', or left here, to go through a literal hell on earth.

Of course, all of this is predicated on whether you live long enough to see it. You could leave here before then, and end up where I know you wouldn't want to be.

The subject verses of scripture, are taken from a very well known passage that includes the passage that says, 'Come now, and let us reason together, saith the LORD: though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool.' [ISA 1:18].

Without going in to too much detail, the preceding verses to the subject text, lay out the message that the prophet Isaiah, is giving to 'God's People', concerning what has been taking place in their midst for far too long.

In verse 2, God calls Heaven and earth, as witness against the people He has essentially brought in to the 'Promised Land', 40 years after He delivered them from the bondage of Egypt, and the ordeals in the wilderness. Yet, here they are, rebelling against Him again.

From verses 3 to 14, He addresses their condition, as that of the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah, except for a small remnant that remained faithful, that is like a cancer, spreading through a body, destroying it from the inside out.

He directs them to consider all of what He has done for them, and the need for them to get back in line with Him, through repentance, and be blessed.

Or, else, He will cut them off, without any way of redemption. [vs 19-20].

Now the question comes up as to how did the people get like this?

Verses 21-31, give us the full picture of what happened to them. And what God has in store for them if they continue in their rebellious ways.

Of interest are verses 21-23, which puts the blame squarely on one segment of their population, and that is the priests.

Why them???

Because they are the ones who were tasked with delivering the Word of God to the kings and other leaders in the city, as well as the common folk.

Whenever a king would come to them for advice in governing the people, or preparing for battle, they wanted God's input before they made a move.

However, as time marched on, and other kings arose, some of them sought to do things the way they wanted to do them, without consulting the priests.

The problem was, the priests had greater influence over the people than the kings did. And that led to conflict between the 2 entities.

One of the ways for the king to overcome this problem, was to offer the priests bribes and such, to get them to go along with what he wanted to do.

At first, many rejected the offer. However, just like things are today, there were some that accepted the offer, and essentially looked the other way when certain things were taking place in the city.

As time went on, and the older priests died off, a new generation of priests arose. Many of them were already corrupted by their predecessors while they were being trained.

It didn't take long for the priesthood to be completely corrupted. Those that stood up for God, were silenced by the majority, banished, or in some instances killed.

This freed up the leaders of the city to do whatever they felt like doing, without having to deal with opposition from God's spokesmen, because they were all being paid off in some fashion.

What this meant is that these priests, were prostituting themselves, and the Word of God.

Now, if you can understand how that happened back then, then, you can see what is wrong in this nation today. Because as the Bible says, There is no new thing under the sun!! What is happening today, is an encore performance of what happened back then!!! [Eccl. 1:9-11].

And since God is the same yesterday, today, and forever, that means His Word, as delivered back then to His people, is being to directed to His people today.

If you will notice, the message is to His People, and not to people in general.

Why is that???

Because His People, know it or not, hold the key to the well being of everyone else in this nation.

How??

Because, as His Children[Representatives], He has given us Power to demonstrate the Truth of His Word to the unbeliever.

When the Word of God is put forth, as it is meant to be, then the unbeliever will see proof of the existence of God, through a means that man can't explain away!!

The condition of this nation today, is one where, man can just about explain away everything that is happening through the sciences, psychology, psychiatry and sociology [which I refer to as the new gods], meaning, whatever they say, the people, not all, but most follow.

Today, just like back then, God has people in positions as priests[preachers], that are supposed to be directing the people, even the leadership of this nation, as to what is right and wrong, in the eyes of God.

They are supposed to let the people know what obedience to God will bring[Deut. 28:1-14]. They are also to be warned of the consequences of disobedience to Him will bring[Deut. 28:15-end].

But, most aren't doing it. Especially in the black community. And why is that??? Because, just like the priests of old, they are being paid to keep quiet on things that they should be warning the people to quit participating in and supporting.

Well, because they aren't doing this, then, God's response is to essentially fulfill His Word in Deut. 28:15-end.

This means that the people will suffer immensely!!

Now the question is, why am I choosing to blame black preachers for the condition America finds itself in??

Well first of all, we have 2 major political parties in this nation. Democrat and Republican. Seeing that neither one is perfect, they both have flaws. One however, is closer to adhering to what God says, versus the other, which is almost totally against what He says. That party is the Democratic party.

All one has to do is look at what He says about things like abortion, homosexuality and lesbianism, separation of church and state, affirmative action, environmentalism and such, and you will see that Democrats support all of these. The Republicans on the other hand reject them.

Now, it would seem that any person affiliated with Jesus Christ, would be apt to support the Republicans.

However, when it comes to the black community, they take the opposite view in that they believe that God has changed His Ways from the old times, despite what the Bible says. They also believe that the Bible, was written by the white man, to keep blacks in bondage to them.

And where do they get these ideas from??? Black preachers. Not all. But definitely most [90+ percent].

And where do these preachers get these ideas from???

The learning institutions that they attended, whose curriculum is designed and influenced by the previously mentioned new gods!!

If you ever drive by some of the most popular churches in our community, and look at the sign that gives the name of the pastor, you will most likely see their name, along with the differing degrees or titles that they have, after their names. Those titles represent the level of education they have received from same institution of higher learning.

Human nature is such that, when people see these accomplishments, they believe that these pastors, are far more knowledgeable than someone with nothing behind their name. And as such, they will flock to them like moths to a flame. And whatever they say, the people believe.

Now let me explain just why I say that 'most black preachers are responsible for the trouble America is in.

As I mentioned a bit earlier, of the 2 major parties that we have, one is on a path that is in line with what God says is right and wrong. That is the Republicans.

The Democratic party on the other hand, is on a course of defiance to what God says.

Now, in the overall scheme of things, it would appear that any person that takes their faith in Christ seriously, would tend to support the party that sticks to His view of things.

Well, just about every other community in this nation, tends to follow those guidelines in general. But many of them, that are not Christians, tend to vacillate between the 2 parties, based on other issues that may be important to them.

This means, there is a split of about 50 percent, that will vote for Democrats at times, while at other times, they will vote Republicans.

As a result, the Democratic party can't count on a steady stream of support from them.

However, when it comes to the black community, upwards of 90 percent of us vote strictly Democratic. This means, they will not consider voting for a Republican, no matter what!! They will just stay home and not vote at all. That is how hard-core their position on the Republican party is.

Now, how did they get like this?? Ultimately because of what they were being led to believe by the black preachers that they listen to.

And, it is because of this type of support, that the Democratic party is able to remain as influential as it is. If it wasn't for the black vote, the Democratic party, as we know it, would cease to exist!!!

You could rightfully say then, that the black community is the strength of the Democratic party. Without us, they would not be able to do the things that they are doing.

Well, with that being the case, then, the black preachers that give them the idea that it is okay to support the Democratic party, are the foundation of the curses that are on this nation because of the Democrat's agenda, that they were able to put in to law!!

Not only that, but, the black preachers lead the Democrats to believe that what they are doing, is fine with God.

There was a time when the differences between the 2 parties, were centered around things like jobs, the economy, and the prices of goods and services. Along with the occasional 'civil rights' issues.

However, when it came to things like love for your neighbor, and the protection of our way of life from hostile nations, both were pretty much on the same page.

When it came to things like morality, both parties were pretty much on the same page. Both took the stance that right was right, and sin was sin, and it wasn't to be tolerated.

But then came the changes in how our kids were being taught in school. Following that, prayer, the ten commandments, and Bible reading were eliminated.

It wasn't long before kids started acting up in class. This opened up the door for the 'new gods' to come in, with their philosophies, and their drugs to help keep them under control, that things really started downhill. Then they started blaming the problems on a dysfunctional society that had been contaminated with the idea of a Superior Being, whose Rules, were the problem.

While many white preachers, rejected this nonsense, black preachers, many of whom were former hustlers, saw dollar signs. More next month!!!

PRESIDENT TRUMP IS RIGHT, WHEN HE SAYS WE NEED TO GET RID OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION [DOE]!!

Ever since he got elected, for a second term, Donald Trump has espoused the idea that it is time to get rid of government institutions that are either outdated, or are a threat to the citizens of this nation.

And leading the way, believe it or not, is an institution that, is tasked with responsibility of making sure that every one that is born in this nation, grows up to be a productive citizen, that is ready to take their place in the growth of this nation.

That institution is the U.S. Department of Education [DOE].

Ever since it was founded in 1979, during the Carter administration, it has wielded great influence on how our public schools, are to be financed and run.

The Department, gets the majority of its money from the U.S. Taxpayer. With that, it sets about to standardize the educational systems in every state, so that graduates from any school in one state, could go to another state for post graduate classes in colleges or universities, and be able to progress in their learning. Or they could go in to any field of endeavor they choose, with their primary education, and be acceptable.

The Department also is responsible for the curriculum that each school must teach, as well as what is acceptable for a student to be considered as having achieved the necessary knowledge to move up the ladder of success, to the next level.

In order for everything to function as it should, the Department must provide the materials and equipment necessary to get the job done.

When it comes to teachers, they must be capable of teaching the subjects that they were hired to teach, which means there has to be some sort of testing, to see if the person is fit to handle the job. You can't have a person teaching math, or science, whose qualifications, are sub-par for that position, without doing harm to the end-goal of the educational system.

This Department, is supposed to be neutral, in its political stances, even though it was founded by a group of people, that desired use it exactly for that purpose.

Ever since it has been in operation, it has steadily become what can best be described as the Department of Indoctrination!

Oh, for the most part, they stick to the basics of reading, writing and arithmetic. But, if a person were to look at the materials they use for reading, you will see a change from what was normal, before the Carter administration in 1976, and, what is presented as fact, and truth, today!!

Everything from how the human race came in to being, the make up of the family, and what is happening in the world today, are presented, with the blessing of the DOE, as fact. When, in reality, they are nothing but theories that man has come up with, to satisfy his need to feel that he is free to live life as he wants to, without any limitations.

This essentially means that sin/evil, is man's way of restricting another's goals, that will satisfy him.

The problem of course is, schools with this type of mentality, are few and far between. And, when those that carry this type of mentality, have to face a world that they say is hostile to them, rather than change their ways, they set about to make everyone else, think like they do.

And the best way to do that is have the educational system in the country, adopt programs that reflect this new mentality, so that they can feel comfortable. Never mind the fact that in a Democracy, the majority rules!!! That means they want to buck the system, where the majority needs to change their way of thinking, and not them.

Over the past few decades, we have seen a steady erosion of the moral backbone/fabric of this nation, espoused by the majority, in favor of a minority of misfits/spoiled brats, so much so, that those that protest these changes, are now considered the one's that are the real threat!!!

How did we get like this??? The U.S. Department of Education/Indoctrination!!!

You have to figure, over the course of 4 decades, a lot of children, educated under those conditions, are now parents, and grandparents. That means, they vote. That means they teach their kids what they learned in school. That means, unless things change, this nation is headed for destruction.

Donald Trump took an oath to defend this nation from all enemies, foreign, and domestic. Since the DOE/DEI, is causing this problem, then, it has to go!! Plain and simple!!!

Recent testing, over the last 40 years, shows something interesting.

Children educated in private and parochial schools, read, write and do math at a level of 1–2 years ahead of their counterparts in the public schools. The 2 years is usually compared to schools in black neighborhoods.

Yet, the teachers in those public schools, are among the highest paid teachers in the nation [k-12].

Out of every dollar that goes to public education, only about 16 cents is spent for the classroom/students. The other 84 cents is for teacher salaries, benefits, administrative costs, and misc.

The DOE, says they need a bigger budget, to properly educate the kids. Yet, parochial and private schools, don't pay nearly that much in administrative costs, and teacher salaries. About 75 cents goes to the classrooms, while the rest is for the teachers.

How many of you, if you hired someone to do a job, and they did a poor job, would pay them more money to do the job right, when you can get someone to do the right job, cheaper???

That is exactly what the DOE, and those that are protesting Trump's desire to get rid of it, are essentially trying to tell us to do.

One of the most egregious things to come down the pike, is this idea of teaching children about gender-identity. Meaning, they want to tell your sons and daughters, that if they are not happy being what God made them, then they can ask their parents to change them in to the other gender.

Just recently, a school board, did a survey of parents, to see how they felt about it. Well, the parents, in mass, rejected the idea. The board voted 16-0 to implement it anyway!! So much for Democracy!!! Especially when it comes to your own kids!!! You don't have a say!!!

One educator said to a group of parents, in another venue, that 'your kids belong to us!!!'

Seeing that we are essentially compelled to send our children to be educated, then we need a choice as to what, and how they are to be educated.

Too many of our kids, are misfits, incapable of getting or holding any type of decent job, that will help them be a productive member of society, instead of a burden. That has got to change.
